

EYEJ SPEAKS

DISCUSSIONS FOR THE COMMUNITY
A FACEBOOK LIVE SERIES

JUNE 18 | 10-11 AM EST

Location: facebook.com/eyejempoweringyouthexploringjustice

EYEJ Speaks is an 8-week Facebook Live and Youth Photography community event series. The series will cover topics pertaining to civic engagement, emotional learning, and social justice. Guests will include thought leaders, participants of the EYEJ Youth Council and EYEJ's Y.O.D.J. (Youth Online Discussing Justice) and Discussion Series programming, strategic partners and more. This live event is open to the wide diverse community we are all part of, both locally in Cleveland and Nationally across the United States.

Please send your questions/comments before the live event to hello@eyej.org.

This week's Speaks conversation will discuss Exploring Money. We will discuss the importance of managing money, seeking jobs/careers for stability, and recognizing the societal implications of financial stressors.
