

EYEJ SPEAKS

DISCUSSIONS FOR THE COMMUNITY
A FACEBOOK LIVE SERIES

JULY 16 | 10 AM EST

Location: facebook.com/eyejempoweringyouthexploringjustice

EYEJ Speaks is an 8-week Facebook Live and Youth Photography community event series. The series will cover topics pertaining to civic engagement, emotional learning, and social justice. Guests will include thought leaders, participants of the EYEJ Youth Council and EYEJ's Y.O.D.J. (Youth Online Discussing Justice) and Discussion Series programming, strategic partners and more. This live event is open to the wide diverse community we are all part of, both locally in Cleveland and Nationally across the United States.

Please send your questions/comments before the live event to hello@eyej.org.

The first Speaks conversation will discuss societal implication of Exploring Violence.

Follow the series using the hashtags #EYEJSpeaks and #SocialJustice.

Kenyatta Skyles
EYEJ Speaks
Producer
EYEJ
Interviewer

Mai Moore
Founder & Executive
Director
EYEJ
EYEJ Team Speaker

Corrin Cooper
Youth Council Member
EYEJ Youth Council Advocate

Miguel Geno Tucker
Organizing Director
Juvenile Justice Coalition
Expert Speaker

Sharyna Cloud
Non-Profit and
Community Leader
Speaker

Charmin Leon
Police Sergeant &
Community Advocate
Speaker