

EYEJ SPEAKS

DISCUSSIONS FOR THE COMMUNITY
A FACEBOOK LIVE SERIES

JULY 23 | 10-11 AM EST

Location: facebook.com/eyejempoweringyouthexploringjustice

EYEJ Speaks is an 8-week Facebook Live and Youth Photography community event series. The series will cover topics pertaining to civic engagement, emotional learning, and social justice. Guests will include thought leaders, participants of the EYEJ Youth Council and EYEJ's Y.O.D.J. (Youth Online Discussing Justice) and Discussion Series programming, strategic partners and more. This live event is open to the wide diverse community we are all part of, both locally in Cleveland and Nationally across the United States.

Please send your questions/comments before the live event to hello@eyej.org.

This week's Speaks conversation will discuss Diversity, Equity and Inclusion.

Follow the series using the hashtags #EYEJSpeaks and #SocialJustice.

Mai Moore
Founder & Executive
Director
EYEJ
EYEJ Team Speaker

Erica Merritt
Founder & Principal
Consultant
Equius Group
Expert Speaker

Erica DeValve
Graduate Student
Fuller Theological Seminary
Masters of Divinity
Program
Speaker

Yumi Ndhlovu
Rising Junior
Hathaway Brown
Youth Speaker

Haley Finnerty
Internal Community
Organizer
EYEJ
Facilitator